

ICC – AFRICA T20 WOMEN’S QUALIFIERS

Day 1 match Tanzania v/s Kenya

Tanzania women team played its first game of the event on the wanderers ground in Namibia today 8th Sept at 1.40 pm. Tanzania won the toss and elected to bat first. The much determined Tanzania’s skipper Fatuma Kibusu opened the innings with Monica Pascal scoring 48 runs not out for her team. Monica Pascal lost her wicket in the 5th over with only 22 runs on the score board. Fatuma was then joined by Neema Justine taking the team score to 56 runs when Neema was run out in the 12th over. Zena Hassan number four batters hardly played two over’s and got run out in the 14th over with only 62 runs on the board. Fatuma and Aisha took the team score to 88/3 in their allotted 20 overs.

In defending the score the Tanzanian ladies put pressure on the Kenyan side by taking 8 wickets only to see Kenyan ladies managing to win the game in the 19th over with a score 89/8.

Fatuma Kibusu was declared the women of the match for her gallant performance for scoring 48 runs not out and taking 2 wickets in the game. Her notable performance was staying at the wickets for the entire inning.

Tanzania will have to play to win against Uganda tomorrow 10am at same wanderers ground.